The DIMMER VIEW

by Max Goodwin

Plague of the Pill Poppers

Much has been said about the pill/narcotics problem as it relates to the U.S. - Baja California border but most of it is from the American point of view.

These statements range from complete ignorance to utter frustration and they are overlaid with such ridiculous theories, completely believed by youngsters — that marijuana will soon be legalized.

Part of this foolishness was dissolved last week when a no foolishness ad hoc hearing on narcotics was held in San Diego. Congressman Lionel Van Deerlin S.D. and John Tunney of Imperial County presided during parts of the hearing. There was general agreement that a tremendous amount of contraband goes across the border, a fact well known, but how much was not fully known locally.

It fell to a Mexican federal prosecutor to more nearly tell it like it is. The prosecutor, Pedro Mireles Malpica, chided the United States for its inability, despite its enormous wealth, to control the drug problem.

Malpica, through an interpreter presented a strong case for stopping U. S. narcotics from being smuggled into Mexico — and out again.

"We live in different countries. Yours is the richest in the world. You have capable youth, youth that has reaped (the benefits of) a high standard of living.

"But the same youth has the problem of addiction."

"The addicts are gaining on you."

"I have talked to them in Tijuana. I have seen them taken — sometimes 15 a month — to the hospital.

"Sometimes they die.

"They preach they have the right to use drugs. They have hopes that, in a very short time, legislation will legalize the use of drugs."

Young Americans, he said, always seem to have $10 or $20 to get drugs.

Malpica did not minimize the enforcement problem in Mexico. He said, several times, that only as much can be done as resources are capable of doing.

No U.S. aid money goes into the narcotics field in spite of what some may think, he said.

In Tijuana there are five agents. Local authorities are called from time to time with "negative results," he said. He implied that local police are not interested in blocking drug traffic. He suggested they might be part of the traffic machinery.

Information fed directly to the federal prosecutor's office would assure an attack on the problem of flushing out Mexicans who sell marijuana, morphine, heroin or drugs, he said.

Mexico is tightening laws concerning "pills" — barbiturates and amphetamines. A person with thousands of drugs must be released, although the pills can be confiscated, he said.

Mexico has very little problem with addiction among its youth except on the frontier and in Mexico City.

Traffic in drugs are very intelligent, he said, and they have something that he does not — a lot of money.

With only the help of the army, Mexico wiped out thousands of acres of poppies (which produce heroin), he said, only to have them bloom in other remote areas. Natives from the original fields were then imported to tend the new fields.

Witnesses from the U. S. told of the growth of drug smuggling.

Vernon V. Hann, district director of U.S. Customs said that only 150,000 cars are checked of the 11,000,000 crossing the Tijuana border each year.

John Van Diver, agent in charge at U.S. Customs Agency in San Ysidro said that 300 pounds of marijuana, 87 ounces of narcotics, and 20,000 pills were confiscated in 1961. Last year, 2,000 pounds of marijuana, 534 ounces of narcotics and five million pills were confiscated.

Joseph House, area supervisor for State Bureau of Narcotics Enforcement said that unethical drug companies in the United States are profiting from the heavy traffic in pills.

Juan Acevedo, director of Narcotics Protection Project in East Los Angeles testified that amphetamines are "far more dangerous" than heroin. "It takes longer to kick the pill habit than heroin addicts," he said.

Then he gave the frightening testimony: "These kids are never in their right minds (when popping pills) — And they never quite recover," he added.

Hippies Are Conformists

There is evidence that the cult of the hippie is dissolving. The hippie movement itself, as it dries up, will leave no painful vacuum.

The pain and sorrow that is residual to the passing of the current species is that of drug-induced deaths, broken psyches, scrambled brains, fatherless children and a tilted sense of moral values.

Hippies are not indigenous to the United States. They're mostly the same regardless of their nationality. The breed varies only slightly from nation to nation. The teddy boys of England and the lip-stick wearing longhairs of the Scandinavian countries are same, fundamentally, as the domestic oddballs of San Francisco, New York and Los Angeles and Ocean Beach fame. And Osmar Kibar, mayor of Izmir, Turkey, in Lemon Grove last week for a speech, said he has them in his city, too.

In bygone days they were known as Bohemians and in later generations they were beatniks. But they all conform to set patterns of non-conformity. They distinguish themselves by a universal dislike for the establishment; they look down on the organization man, and try to organize against him. Yet, they conform more to a set pattern than he does.

For example, the organization man may live in an apartment, town house, hotel room, penthouse, tent, trailer, cold-water flat, bungalow, farm house, or any one of dozens of other abodes. He may be Catholic, Protestant, Jew, agnostic or atheist, or any one of many less well-known religious sects.

Not so the hippie. His religion is the present fad. He may worship Timothy Leary this week, Mao Tse-tung the next, and Fidel Castro before the month is out. His abode is a kind

Armed Robbery Foiled

Armed robbers unsuccessfully attempted to hold up the Rock Liquor Store, 7161 Broadway in Lemon Grove Saturday evening when an off-duty policeman entered and patronized the store.

Officer Warren Young entered the store and became suspicious when one of the would-be thieves, a young girl, attempted to wait on him. She was unfamiliar with the operation of the cash register.

Young called sheriff's officers to the store.

The officers arrived and apprehended a 21-year old man, and a 15-year-old girl and placed them under arrest on suspicion of armed robbery and auto theft.

According to officers, the pair entered the store at 7:10 p.m. and ordered clerk John Davis to the back of the store at knife point.

Another clerk, James Meyers, was already in the back and both employees were ordered to undress. Meanwhile, the girl went back to the cash register when Officer Young entered the store.

Lives Change At TAC Says Youth Leader

"A week's time often changes youngsters to accept a new way of life," Nova Smith, director of Teen Action Center in Spring Valley said this week.

"When they come to the Center we challenge them with philosophy based on the Bible," he said. "Not all of them take the challenge but those who do undergo a change of life and it becomes evident the first week," he added.

TAC, he explained, is a religion oriented activity where youngsters who are having trouble with narcotics, the police, and other problems, may come for innocent relaxation. The Center is located at the Thirty Mart shopping center at Elkton and Jamacha rd. Youngsters meet there in a relaxed atmosphere and playing pong, pool and other games. The Center is open Tuesday through Friday 2-10 p.m.

Volunteers are needed to man the facility according to Smith. Contacts may be made through the group's officers: Mrs. Peggy McClain at 582-1742; Mrs. Anne Lowe, 466-3320, and Smith, 463-8508.

Vandals Strike Local Business

Local businesses were apparent crime victims during the past week, according to the County Sheriff's Office.

San Diego Gas and Electric Co. suffered $164 of damage to cable and insulators July 9, when the equipment was apparently fired upon by a weapon.

The incident occurred at Jamacha and Sweetwater Springs rd.

College Realty, 9430 Jamacha in Spring Valley, reported a missing television set, valued at an estimated $150, on July 10.

LOOTED — Highlander Men's Store in College Grove was hit by looting Sunday night when disturbances in Southeast San Diego reached nearly to the edge of Lemon Grove.

SUNDAY DISORDER

Looters Hit Store In College Grove Center

Disturbances Sunday night in Southeast San Diego reached nearly to the edge of Lemon Grove with looters breaking windows and removing goods from Highlander's Mens Store in College Grove.

The disturbances were widespread and included sniper fire and arson in addition to the looting.

Most of the disorder was concentrated in the area between 43rd and Logan and 43rd and National.

Four persons were reported wounded and several others were injured by thrown rocks there. The Fire Department reported 40 fire calls were received, many of them false alarms.

The department sent nine companies into the area to put out grass fires and structural blazes.

It was 5:30 p.m. when San Diego police officers reported that a crowd gathered at 40th st. and Franklin ave. in San Diego became surly and shots were fired.

It was between 10 and 10:30 p.m. when alarms sounded at the Highlander store in College Grove, according to Claude Sarvis, store manager. "Our store is bugged very securely," he said. "Alarms began sounding as soon as glass was broken."

The looters broke out six of the tinted 30 by 36-inch panes in the back of the store, facing the parking lot, and also broke two of the windows on the back door.

Sarvis said that he hadn't had time for a check of goods missing, but felt that the looters had not entered the store. "I was called immediately," he recounted, "and I came right down. When I arrived, the police and Tipton Patrol were already here."

Police reported seven suspects were apprehended in connection with the incident and placed under arrest.

Business was back to normal on Monday as a large crowd shopped, unconcerned, at the center.

The damage was repaired on Monday afternoon.

gar Grove, W. Va.

Willey is Commander of District 1 of California Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States. His District includes Lemon Grove. He is a letter-carrier for the Lemon Grove Post Office.

Commander-in-Chief Homan said that none of the organization's many programs, such as continued support for our servicemen in Vietnam, national security, community service work, safety (including the highly successful Lite-A-Bike and Defensive Driving programs), and the many VFW-sponsored patriotic activities could succeed without a strong, growing membership and active leadership.

"It is the goal of every level of the VFW to be named All-American Commander," said Homan. Willey richly deserves this recognition because of his outstanding leadership as Commander of his District VFW and his many achievements in that office."

400 Mobile Homes At Sweetwater-Palm Held Up By Planners

SAN DIEGO (CNA) — The County Planning Commission on Friday delayed action on a proposed 40-space mobile home park in Lemon Grove that is going to have problems with Route 125 freeway.

Applicants Thomas D. and Abraham K. Mukai have asked for the permit for land located on the west side of Sweetwater rd. and on the south side of Palm st.

The park would extend west to Lawton dr. and south to Alton dr.

However, Route 125 will take nearly half of the property and cut off access to Sweetwater rd.

The continuance until Aug. 1 was for further planning department discussion with the state division of highways. The route is apparently fixed, but construction is a number of years away.

A number of residents on Lawton dr. objected to the special use permit.

Their property overlooks the trailer site and there were objections to a sea of antennas and brilliant sunlight reflected from the metal roofs.

Mayor of Izmir, Turkey Is Lemon Grove Visitor

"The only Russian you can trust is a dead Russian," Osmar Kibar, the mayor of Izmir, Turkey, told members of the Lemon Grove Rotary club Monday.

Kibar, in the U. S. as a guest of the State Department, had come to study growing city problems in St. Louis and San Diego.

"You are far away from Russia but we have suffered under Russian friendship for many years," he said.

"They understand only the language of aggressiveness. If a peace-loving country deals with them defensively, it is lost," he said.

Kibar admitted that relations between U. S. and Turkey was low during the Johnson administration, "but that is changing now," he said. He declined to explain.

Izmir, with a population of 600,000, has doubled in the past 10 years.

BULLETIN

Robert A. Hinspeter, 46, was found dead from an apparently self-inflicted gunshot wound in his Lemon Grove home yesterday morning.

The problem is created by the immigrant poor and rural coming to the city. "St. Louis has some of the problems of Izmir — San Diego does not," he said.

He said that a program for improving the lot of the City of Izmir had been developed by the former San Diego City Manager George Beane.

Touching on the narcotics problem, Kibar said that it is not restricted to the U. S.

"We have the problem and so do other countries," he said. "In my country you get narcotics quickly and cheaply — but if you are caught using them it is an automatic six years prison term. It is 15 years for peddling and 20 years for manufacturing them. Still we have the problem."

Kibar was escorted about the community here by Briant Kearney representing the International Visitors Center of San Diego.

Program chairman at Rotary was president Tom Clayton.

Ferry Boat Available

The Division of Bay Toll Crossings said that City, County, and State agencies are given first priority to obtain the last available ferry boat, the M.V. North Island, a 220' wooden-hulled vessel operated by the San Diego-Coronado Ferry Company across the San Diego Bay.

The "M.V. North Island," the oldest of the wooden vessels was built in 1923. It and another wooden-hulled vessel — the Silver Strand, built in 1927, once shuttled commuters across the Golden Gate between San Francisco and Marin County under the names Golden Shore and Golden West.

The Silver Strand is being sold to the city of Chula Vista for a theater and possible museum complex).

Social Security News

As a public service to readers, this newspaper presents a question and answer column about the Social Security program.

Sumio Ota, El Cajon Social Security Office Manager, answers questions frequently asked.

Q. I have to pay social security tax on the tips I receive from customers. What good does it do me?

A. Social Security benefits are based on the amount a person earns over the years. By adding your tips to your regular wages, your social security benefit will be higher.

Q. I have had almost $50 in doctor bills so far this year. When should I send in my claim to Medicare?

A. Generally, you should not send in your small bills until they have gone over $50, since medical insurance under Medicare does not pay any of the first $50 of covered medical expenses in each year.

Q. I am a widow and receive social security disability benefits based on my own earnings. My daughter, who lives in another state, wants me to come and live with her. I would like to go, but friends tell me my disability benefits will be stopped if I do. Is this true?

A. No, it is not true. Your disability benefit check will be sent to your new address when you notify the social security office of your move.

Q. I need a hospital bed at home. Will Medicare pay for it?

A. Yes, if the bed is prescribed by your physician as medically necessary. Medicare will assist in the payment of either rent or purchase of the bed. Payments stop, however, when the medical need for the bed ends.

Q. I have further questions regarding the Social Security Law, contact or write the Social Security Office, 570 North Second st., El Cajon, California 92021.

The office is open from 8:30 a.m. until 4:30 p.m., Monday through Friday and until 7:30 p.m. on Wednesdays. The telephone number is 442-0851.

Kentucky has 1,624 post offices.

W. S. Olson 'Control Drinking' Local Preacher Tells Jehovah's Witnesses

Wendell S. Olson of 7070 Broadway, Lemon Grove, circuit supervisor for 17 San Diego area congregations of Jehovah's Christian Witnesses, was speaker Tuesday at their "Peace On Earth" International Assembly, Dodger Stadium.

Olson, an ordained minister for the past 30 years, said, "Drinking alcoholic beverages is a personal matter but must be controlled so as not to offend others and more importantly we must follow the Bible's standards of moderation at all times if we are to have Jehovah God's friendship and approval."

Besides his speaking assignment Olson assisted in the Refreshment Department where tens of thousands of sandwiches together with salads and coffee were served the delegates during the 30-hour spiritual experience.

This column of questions and answers on federal tax matters is provided by the local office of the U. S. Internal Revenue Service and is published as a public service to taxpayers. The column answers questions most frequently asked by taxpayers.

Q — How does IRS pick the returns that it checks?

A — All returns are checked for mathematical accuracy and completeness. In addition, certain returns are selected for more detailed examination. This year IRS has started a new way of selecting these income tax returns for audit. Under this system, each return is analyzed by computer and receives a score based on possible errors. The returns can then be ranked as to their need to be examined.

Q — I am having a sun porch put on my home. Will any of this cost be deductible?

A — No, this cost is not deductible. However, you may add the expense of installing the porch to the cost basis of your home. Your cost basis is the price paid for your home plus the improvements.

Q — I've accepted a job as a counselor at summer camp. Will I be taxed for my food and lodging?

A — The value of your room and board will not be taxable as long as they are furnished on your employer's premises and for his conveniences. Also you must be required to accept the lodging as a condition of employment. This is the case in most camp situations.

Q — When is the next payment due on my maid's Social Security?

A — The quarterly payment for the months of April, May and June is due July 31. Use Form 942, "Employer's Quarterly Tax Return for Household Employees," to file and pay this tax.

This tax is due when cash wages of $50 or more are paid to a household employee during a calendar quarter.

Q — I'm going into the furniture moving business. Will I have to pay the highway use tax on my trucks?

A — Whether a truck is taxable depends on its type and weight. Details are contained in Publication 349, "Federal Use Tax on Trucks, Tractor-Trucks and Buses." Send a post card to your IRS district office for a free copy.

The publication gives the revised schedule of taxable gross weights effective July 1. The schedule was revised because trucks are bigger and carry heavier loads now than they did in 1956 when the original schedule was set up.

ANTIQUES ON SHOW

LG's Mrs. Conrad Co-Chairs Exhibit

Mrs. Donald B. Conrad of Lemon Grove has been named co-chairman of "Timeless Treasures II," an exhibit of elegant American, European and Oriental antiques. The show will also feature unique collections of various kinds.

Sponsored by the Auxiliary to the San Diego Speech and Hearing Center, a division of Children's Hospital and Health Center, the exhibit will be open to the public July 19-23, at the House of Hospitality in Balboa Park.

It will be open to the public from 11 a.m. to 9 p.m. July 19-22, and from 11 a.m. to 6 p.m. on July 23. Admission to the exhibit will be $2 for adults and $1 for students. Due to the irreplaceable nature of the exhibits we will be unable to admit children under 12 years of age.

Between 10 and 11 a.m. prior to each day's opening, prominent antique authorities will conduct walking lecture tours, describing in detail the collections being shown. Admission to the lecture tour will be $4, and will include the entrance fee to the exhibit. Advance registration is required for each tour.

Proceeds will be used to purchase a central control network of a multi-purpose television training system, a sophisticated system designed to relieve the workload and facilitate the observation of the rapid and testing techniques at the San Diego Speech and Hearing Center by groups of parents, staff members and interns undergoing training.

Mrs. Conrad and her husband, a communications consultant for Pacific Telephone Company, have been residents of Lemon Grove for eight years. Their two children, Bruce, 7, and Michele, 2, were born here.

Born and reared in Canton, South Dakota, Mrs. Conrad came to California after graduating from the University of South Dakota. She subsequently taught kindergarten and first grade in Orange County.

She first became interested in deaf children through Mrs. Betty Petersen, who was then director of the Hear Foundation in San Diego.

Mrs. Conrad put her training and experience in education to use by teaching part-time at the Hear Foundation, and later continuing to teach at the San Diego Speech and Hearing Center when it was organized.

She is a charter member of the Auxiliary to the San Diego Speech and Hearing Center and has served as auxiliary secretary, general meetings chairman and now as co-chairman of the "Timeless Treasures II Antique Exhibit." Mrs. Conrad's other activities include membership in the PEO Sisterhood.

Teens Still Hooked On Tobacco

One million people a year quit smoking. But thousands start. Many of them are teenagers.

According to a recent nationwide survey, only about one percent of 12-year-olds smoke. But by age 17, 35 percent of the boys and 21 percent of the girls are regular smokers.

Smoking is most common among teenagers whose parents and older siblings have the habit, according to the study which was conducted by Chilton Research Services of Philadelphia.

"Kick the habit and join the unhooked generation" is the slogan of the anti-smoking campaign of the National Tuberculosis and Respiratory Disease Association. But a big slice of the "now" generation gets hooked every year.

Anti-smoking campaigns are having an impact, though. Teenage smoking — and adult smoking — is now declining. In the nationwide survey, 91 percent of the teenagers interviewed thought smoking was harmful.

The same survey — in comparison with another study done ten years ago — showed a ten percent drop in teenage smoking.

In some areas of the country, teenagers themselves have organized their own anti-smoking campaigns. A group in California consulted the top advertising men in town, radio and TV programmers, and newspaper editors for tips on how to set up effective campaigns. Then they went ahead and produced a real smasher.

Styles are shifting fast, and smoking is losing some of its cool. It may be on the way out. But it's a slow exit.

One-fourth of all men and one-fifth of all women who have ever smoked have now quit. But it's a lot easier never to start. And some — but not enough — teenagers have gotten the message.

Sonic Education President Happy With Lemon Grove

Neil Castle, president of the young Sonic Educational Products Company, calls Lemon Grove "one of the happiest combinations of business locations I've ever seen."

It was by chance that the location was chosen, but "we're happy we came here now."

There are so many things nearby, the hardware store, office supplies, the bank," he said, "that make this an outstanding business location for our purposes."

Sonic Educational Products has been moving into their newly constructed building here since May 10.

The company produces the "Talking Book" or "Sonic Reader" — an acoustical-reproducing device sold by the Montgomery Ward chain.

The book, a device to help children learn to read, presents printed type alongside a manually-operated record that the child spins to hear the story told while he reads the type.

The company owns a patent on the concept and is the only firm to produce the product.

The 4,000 square-foot building houses only four employees now but will expand up to 18 before the Christmas peak season.

"We will then have the capacity to produce 3,000 books daily," Castle said.

Trip In Mind? Safeguard Your Home

Going on a long vacation soon? If you want to reduce the chances of burglary while you're away, follow these simple precautions.

... Homes without lights at night are tempting to thieves. Make provisions to leave a lamp connected to an automatic timer which will turn on the light at dusk and off again at bedtime.

... Don't leave valuables behind. Put them in a safe deposit box at your local bank.

... Discontinue all regular deliveries, like newspapers and magazines, so they won't stack up outside and announce that you're not home.

... Ask a neighbor to take in your mail, too.

... Don't draw your drapes — it's a clue to the burglar that you're away.

... Give a key to a friend for use in an emergency.

... Double check all locks before you leave to make sure they are in working order.

... If you have a lawn, mow it before you go.

... Finally, notify police when you depart and return from your vacation.

Housebreaking is on the increase in the U. S. but you can minimize the risks during vacations by heeding the above pointers.

Susan Starbuck To Switzerland

A local resident will attend worship services on Saturday, July 19, in a quiet valley of northern Italy, once the scene of a bloody persecution of Christians.

She is Susan Starbuck of 1925 Massachusetts, Lemon Grove, a local representative to a World Youth Congress of the Seventh-day Adventist Church which will be held July 22-26 in Zurich, Switzerland.

Miss Starbuck will worship at outdoor services in a valley near Torre Pellice, Italy, where a band of Christians called the Waldenses sought refuge from church leaders because they denied papal authority and the existence of purgatory.

The local resident will worship with some 250 other representatives from the western U.S. at the outdoor worship service. Surrounding the worship site are the forbidding mountains where hundreds of the Waldenses hid but were eventually found and executed.

After traveling to Geneva and Bern in Switzerland on July 20 and 21, the local representative will arrive in Zurich on July 22 for the giant youth meet to be attended by some 12,000 persons from about 100 countries.

DR. A. C. OLSON Jr.

Olson Addresses Conservationists

The program, held at 7:30 p.m. at Montezuma Hall in the campus' Aztec Center, is open to the public without charge.

Key speaker will be Dr. Andrew Olson, of 3885 Capitol st. in Lemon Grove, professor of biology at San Diego State. His talk is entitled, "The Use of Natural Areas as Outdoor Classrooms and Laboratories."

A Sierra Club film, "Nature Next Door," and a panel discussion led by local naturalists will complete the program.

Hot Sun Stirs Up Cool Screen Sales

After 15 years in the screen business, Leroy Finch decided it was time to get his own shop.

This he did, and it's located on the corner of Sweetwater rd. and Broadway in Lemon Grove.

Finch Construction, in existence for a month and a half, specializes in screening, repairing screens or erecting complete screened-in patios. All this Finch does himself, building from basic materials. He has one salesman working with him.

The front door of the office leads into an example of Finch's work. A room leading into the office has a half-screen, half-brick enclosure on two sides and wood paneling on two others. The ceiling is insulated and the atmosphere is breezily cool.

"Now that the sun's come out, business has picked up," he said.

A 25-year resident of Lemon Grove, Finch lives at 2128 Glencoe.

WINCHESTER REMAINS

Tomlinson Era Nears End For Mt. Miguel Tracksters

The Tomlinson era is nearing the end for the Mt. Miguel High track team.

The coach, Dick Tomlinson, is leaving after a six-year stay, but one of his most outstanding products will be around next year, slinging hardware in the old Tomlinson fashion — which is to say farther than most.

The black-haired Tomlinson, a USC product, was a national class javelin thrower in his college years, throwing more than 240 feet.

He had natural rapport with weightmen and produced a group of outstanding throwers at the Spring Valley school.

Among them were this spring's 60-foot shotputters Billy Joe Winchester and Steve Dougherty. The pair also excelled in the discus, with Dougherty throwing 172-8, and Winchester a county-record 180 feet.

Tomlinson began as an assistant coach at Miguel in 1964, became head coach the next year and went back to assistant again this spring when Ted Banks took over the team.

As a head coach, the former Trojan also produced his share of pole-vaulters and hurdlers, including Dave Stewart (14-4 3/4), Randy Provizano (14-5), Pat Ela (13-7), and Basil Machado (14-7). He also had a pair of 1:55 half-milers around — Mike Lybrand and Terry Torgerson.

Winchester, the husky junior who popped out eyes all over the county with his long throws, will be back next year, continuing the Tomlinson influence.

Billy Joe has been in Tomlinson's hands since he was a freshman. That year he threw 49 feet with the shot and 157 with the discus.

In his sophomore year he registered marks of 55 feet and 166-1. His shot mark improved to 62-2 3/4 this spring and the discus mark to 180.

No junior in San Diego County has thrown as far. In fact, only two seniors have bettered Winchester's shot mark and the discus mark is the county record.

Tomlinson estimates that Billy Joe may go 65 to 67 feet next year, possibly a cautious prediction. He rates his discus potential at something over 190 feet.

The coach rates either Winchester or Ela as the best all-around athlete he's coached at Miguel. Winchester was always good for a pair of firsts (unless beaten by an outstanding throw by teammate Dougherty), but Ela was a real workhorse.

He was a consistent long-jumper in the 22 to 23 foot range for four years, was an outstanding triple jumper as well and found time to vault 13-7 in his senior year.

He rates Dougherty as "the best technician I've ever had."

Ela is at Occidental College in Los Angeles now but is not competing. Dougherty is ticketed for Stanford. Winchester, of course, will be back at Miguel next year.

As for Tomlinson, he'll join the coaching staff at El Camino College in Torrance as assistant coach. El Camino is the second largest two-year school in the state, with an enrollment of 23,000, and competes with track powers such as East LA, Long Beach, Pierce and Bakersfield.

"It's the big leagues," Tomlinson says, "of junior college track." In addition to his coaching, Tomlinson will do some teaching, including (naturally) weight-training classes.

Alcindor-Hayes Rematch Opens Rocket Schedule

NBA's top draft choices of the past two years, Elvin Hayes of the San Diego Rockets and Lew Alcindor of the Milwaukee Bucks, will help inaugurate the Rockets 1969-70 home schedule, October 22, at the San Diego International Sports Arena.

The 33-game home slate was announced by Rocket general manager Pete Newell who termed San Diego's home debut "a natural" as a sports attraction.

For the first time in their three-years as a member of the NBA, the Rockets open the season on the road, meeting the Phoenix Suns, October 16, and the San Francisco Warriors, October 18, prior to their home meeting with Alcindor and the Bucks.

Hayes, selected by the Rockets in 1963, and Alcindor, by the Bucks this year, are no strangers to each other, having met as collegians on three occasions. Alcindor was a three-time All-American while leading UCLA to three straight NCAA titles in 1967, 1968, and 1969.

Hayes, also a three-time All-American while at Houston, was named college Player of the Year in 1968.

UCLA topped Houston, 73-58, in the 1967 NCAA Western Regional championships in the first meeting between the two big men and the two teams split in two contests during the 1967-68 season with Houston defeating the Bruins, 71-69, behind Hayes' 39 points in a regular season contest. The Bruins came back in the NCAA Western Regional semifinals to score a 101-69 victory on their way to the national college title.

Following the October 22 opener, the Rockets remain home to meet another greatly improved foe in the Phoenix Suns, Saturday, October 25, at 8 p.m.

The Suns will have the services of 6-8 super-star Connie Hawkins who signed with the NBA team recently.

The home schedule lists two games in October, seven in November, eight in December, seven in January, seven in February and seven in March.

Of the 38 games, 22 are on weekends. There are six Sunday games, all starting at 7 p.m. except for the March 15 contest against Philadelphia which will begin at 11 a.m. and will be nationally televised.

Weeknight and Saturday games will all start at 8 p.m. Included are 11 games on Saturday, five on Friday, two on Thursday, nine on Wednesday, three on Tuesday and two on Monday.

Both California rivals, Los Angeles and San Francisco, will be visiting the Rockets' arena four times each during regular season play.

Monarch Summer Teams Winning

By SCOTT McGAUGH

Monte Vista's baseball squad ran its record to 9-5 going into the last week of diamond action.

The Monarchs picked up wins over Hoover and San Diego but lost to Patrick Henry in last week's action.

Steve Mays hurled a two-hit shutout over San Diego while Jeff Mann went 3-for-4 at the plate in the Monarchs' 7-0 win.

But against Hoover, Monte Vista had to go eight innings before winning, 4-3.

Once again Jeff Mann was important at the plate as he doubled to open the eighth inning and later came around to score the winning run for the Monarchs.

The Monarchs were then shutout by Patrick Henry, 5-0 to give them their 9-5 record.

Monte Vista will go into the play-offs this weekend after taking on Grossmont this week in their season finale.

The Monarch basketball squad is currently in first place with a 5-1 record to date.

The Monarchs beat both Madison and Kearny last week to put them ahead of second-place Lincoln in the standings.

The Warhawks of Madison, CIF champs last year, were never close to the Monarchs as Monte Vista led at the end of every quarter and were up by 29 in the third period.

The final score 81-70 as the Monarchs picked up a stunning upset over the Warhawks.

TURN-AROUND

Matadors Winless In Summer Hoop Play

After a few years of prosperity, including a perfect season two years ago, the pendulum has swung the other way for the Mt. Miguel basketball team.

Graduated last month were the remaining stars on that county championship team, including 6-3 center Ken Listow.

Now, Matador coach Dick Ridgway has to start all over.

With no experienced players to count on, he starts at least three freshmen in each game of the Pepsi Summer League play.

Facing much more experienced squads, the Matadors have taken their lumps to the tune of a 0-6 record as of last week.

The Matadors faced Bonita Vista and hot-shooting Paul Halupa last Monday night and were bombed, 65-46. League foe Santana blasted the young quintet, 77-35, two nights later.

The team plays each Monday and Wednesday night at the Muni gym in Balboa Park.

Larry Farrar Sets Record In Olympic Swim Meet

Area swimmers capped a big weekend of swimming at the Long Course Junior Olympics of the Pacific Southwest Association A.A.U. at National City pool Saturday and Sunday.

Outstanding efforts were turned in by Pat Bruce and Eva Judson of Carman Ranch who took first place in boys' 15-17 and 200m and under, 50-meter freestyle; 50-meter backstroke, and 50-meter breaststroke.

Eva took first place in girls' 10-14 and under in 50-meter free and fifth place in 50-meter back.

The La Mesa team was led by Lemon Grove's Lisa Goodwin's two first place wins in girls' 15-17, 200-meter breaststroke and 100-meter freestyle.

La Mesa's Larry Farrar racked up a new PSA and Junior Olympic record in boys' 13-14, 100-meter freestyle. He also took second place in 100-meter breaststroke.

David Johnson of Mission Valley Tennis Club was second in boys' 15-17, 100-meter backstroke after setting a new L.J.O. record of 2:28.7 in the qualifying heats.

The Junior Olympics of the A.A.U. is sponsored national-

Why haven't you ever visited Del Mar?

Now, at last, after 200 years, there's freeway all the way to Del Mar...from almost anywhere! It's a breeze to get there! It's fun! It's big-time entertainment! Top names in Thoroughbred racing: jockeys, horses, stables, trainers. They're at Del Mar...shouldn't you be?

NO NEED TO BE AN EXPERT! You don't have to be an expert to enjoy a day at the races. At Del Mar, any day becomes a holiday for everybody! But if you feel you should know a little more about Thoroughbred racing, just get this handy booklet. Pick one up when you visit the track, write for a copy, or just phone (755-1141 or 297-4023), we'll send you one. You'll learn why every Thoroughbred has a lip tattoo!

You'll know that a "horse" is a male five years or older, and that all Thoroughbreds have the same birthday! Not only that but you'll learn how to make a wager the right way...and be comfortable to know you're not the only one who isn't 100% sure what happens when you hold a Win, Place or Show ticket and your horse runs in the money! There's even a diagram of a Thoroughbred so you won't confuse a foal with a forelock or a furlong.

ANOTHER GREAT SPORT! Whether you choose to become an expert, or even a semi-expert, or just want to go for plain fun, Del Mar is the place for you. It's one of the great major league sports in San Diego (in fact, San Diego's first major league sport), and you should be enjoying it.

The thrilling finish of a race offers the most dramatic excitement in sports. If you're a baseball fan, think of it as a home run with the bases loaded in the last of the ninth for a one-run win. That's close. Or, if football is your game, think of a last-second punt return for a touchdown and you'll have some idea of the thrill when your Thoroughbred comes from behind in the home stretch to win by a nose.

YOU DON'T HAVE TO BET! We're serious! You don't have to bet at all. Play the races on paper—it's fun! Lots of people do. But we must admit, wagering does add to the excitement. Actually, racing becomes a participation sport as well as a great spectator sport. Think of it for two bucks, a Thoroughbred becomes your horse. (At least for a while.)

GREAT RACES! Remember, when the Thoroughbreds run, you'll see great variety — from 6-furlong sprints to brilliant 1 1/2-mile battles on the lush grass course. And it's all yours — all the color and excitement of a day at Del Mar — for the price of admission! Just $1.50 general admission! How many other major league sports can match that? If you want a real deal, check into our General Admission Savings Plan. You'll get 10 general admissions for just $10. Save $5! Use 'em all one day, bring a gang, or come by yourself 10 different days. Write Del Mar Turf Club, Del Mar, Calif. There are 42 racing dates — July 24-Sept. 11. First race starts at 2 p.m., Monday through Saturday. Nine races each day! It's all happening where the turf meets the surf...

Holiday Accidents Wait To Happen

Food poisoning, electrical shocks, flame flashes from the charcoal grill. Sound like a good way to start a holiday? Hardly! Yet this is exactly what could be in store for you at the holiday picnic — and it could happen right in your own backyard.

Statistics on traffic fatalities have made some people decide that home is the best place to spend a holiday. It's the safest place to be — or is it? The high rates of home accidents seem to indicate that safety practices must never be abandoned even at an event as "harmless" as a backyard picnic.

Take the matter of food poisoning, for example. It strikes thousands of picnickers every summer. Frequently the symptoms are not severe, and the victim gets only a mild stomach ache. Other times the unsuspecting picnicker does not get off so easily. Severe abdominal pain, vomiting, diarrhea, chills, and fever set in.

Bacterial food poisoning can be divided into two types, says Athene Hensley, Vice President for Home and Public Safety for the Safety Council. "One is called food infection and the other, food intoxication," Mrs. Hensley reports.

"In the first variety, a person eats food laden with bacteria. He actually becomes infected with the organism, and gets sick. The second variety of food poisoning occurs when the bacteria grow in the food and produce a poison. It is this poison that makes a person sick."

Both these types of illness are commonly known as food poisoning. But strictly speaking, the first kind is an infection, not a poisoning. There is little difference in the symptoms produced by food infection and food intoxication, although those produced by food infection are likely to be more severe.

Food poisoning is treacherous. It can sneak up and catch a person unaware because it does not always affect the appearance or taste of the food.

Mrs. Hensley asserts that food should not present a hazard to picnickers if it is handled properly. Special precautions are in order, particularly with high risk foods.

These include such outdoor favorites as deviled eggs, potato salad, and moist casseroles — moist foods that contain eggs, milk, or meat. These foods are good breeding grounds for the bacteria that cause some types of food poisoning.

Two or more hours in the dangerous temperature zone between 40F and 140F can make food hazardous for eating. Mrs. Hensley offers these additional tips to keep in mind when a person is working with food.

"Make sure your hands are clean before you start to prepare food. And never handle food if you have a sore or cut on your hands, or if you have recently had an upset stomach."

Small appliances and other portable electrical equipment can add greatly to the convenience of outdoor eating. But using them outside can be risky business. If possible, ground any indoor appliance that is to be used outside.

If it cannot be grounded, make sure that the area where it is being used is not wet. The safest choice of all, though, is to avoid using appliances outside unless they were specially designed for outdoor use.

Charcoal grills are part of almost every picnic scene. Make sure they sit on level ground and are sturdily designed so they cannot be tipped over easily. Don't use a flammable liquid as gasoline to start a fire. "And never use the grill inside," Mrs. Hensley cautions. "When charcoal burns, it may give off lethal carbon monoxide gas."

of a commune where he shares the dirt, disease and perhaps the various bodies as well.

The organization man may be Democrat, Republican, Conservative, or Liberal. Indeed, he may be a combination of all these on assorted issues.

Not so the hippie. His ideological commitments never extend beyond the immediate needs of self and commune.

The organization man pursues the dream of his individual goal. The hippie confines his dream to what a pill or a needle or a weed, in a roll of paper, will provide.

For all their talk of being individuals, hippies are anything but.

They are conformists of the worst kind, segregating themselves physically in hippie ghettos, isolating their ambitions to self-indulgence, and confining their dreams to drugged nightmares.

It's quite rare that there is anything to distinguish one pig from the others in the pen.

Preserve Status Change Studied

SAN DIEGO (CNA) — County supervisors decided Tuesday that no more agricultural preserves will be formed unless the land owner will agree to a 25-year term.

The previous length of time had been ten years, but only three preserves were formed before the board, with two new members, decided to take a further look at the situation.

The preserves are the Mendocino Ranch on Paloma Mountain, the Ecke flower land in Encinitas, and the Daley Ranch near Jamul.

The board had 12 more preserves under consideration. Tuesday in a continued hearing, but the action was to reset the hearing for Sept. 3.

In a preserve, the assessment is based upon the value of the farm production, not on the market value of the land.

Thus the effect is uneven. The 8,000-acre Daley Ranch running only 250 or so head of cattle gets a tremendous tax break, while Paul Ecke with his high value flower crop does not fare nearly so well.

One reason for this, Assessor E. C. Williams said, is that greenhouses, sprinkling systems and other strictly farm improvements are taken into account as farm improvements under a preserve system, but not in a market value situation.

Wearing cotton may be one way to keep well! Medical researchers have discovered that viruses do not live as long on cotton as they do on other fabrics. While a virus may live for three months on some fabrics, it will only last about three days on cotton. If the cotton fabric is treated with a wash and wear chemical, the virus only lives one day.

College Students Eligible for OCS

The U. S. Army has a new enlistment program for college students. Sergeant R. S. Santos, local Army recruiter, announced that effective immediately, college students with at least 60 semester hours can enlist in the Army Officer Candidate School (OCS).

The new program allows young men with either 60 semester, 60 trimester or 90 quarter-master hours of undergraduate college level studies to enlist under the new program.

Graduates of accredited junior colleges and those having sufficient credit hours from an accredited degree granting institution are eligible to enlist for OCS. Prior to this only individuals with a baccalaureate or higher degree could apply for the OCS program from outside the active Army.

The total training period for OCS, from enlistment to commissioning, lasts about 10½ months. The training is divided into three categories: basic, advanced and formal OCS. After receiving a commission the remaining active duty obligation is 24 months.

Additional information about the new OCS enlistment option can be obtained from Sergeant Santos at 356 North Magnolia ave., El Cajon Phone 442-5700.

U.S. Bank Earnings Up 62%

SAN DIEGO — United States National Bank reported a 62 per cent increase in net operating earnings as compared to the like period of 1968. This increase is partly due to the fact that certain of the newly acquired Branch Banks have reached a point whereby they are contributing to the overall profit of the bank. This trend is expected to continue into the future.

For the six month period ended June 30, 1969, net operating earnings were $1,033,281 or 76 cents per share on a weighted average of 1,360,125 shares outstanding. This compares to net operating earnings for the first six months of 1968 of $638,000, or 66 cents per share on a weighted average of 973,000 shares outstanding. Shares outstanding increased as the result of mergers and stock dividends.

School Districts Show Increases In Assessments

SAN DIEGO (CNA) — The Lemon Grove School District has registered a solid increase in assessed valuation, according to figures released Monday by County Auditor Gerald Lonergan.

The district's valuation, on locally assessed secured property before equalization, rose 7.96 percent for fiscal year 1969-70.

This was below, however, the county average at 10½ percent and the Grossmont High School District at 11.19 percent.

La Mesa-Spring Valley's increase was 5.31 percent, which in many years would have been higher than the county average.

Jamul-Los Flores rose only 3.06, but the action of the Board of Supervisors in making an agricultural preserve out of the Daley Ranch kept this figure artificially low.

Valuations: Lemon Grove, $34,710,291; La Mesa-Spring Valley, $127,099,970; Jamul-Las Flores, $5,525,813.

If milk prices had increased in proportion to wages, the 1969 average price of milk in California would be between 75 and 80 cents per half gallon, says Dairy Council of California.

Rockets Sign Barnett

SAN DIEGO, Calif. — Jim Barnett, 6-4 guard for the San Diego Rockets, has signed his contract for the coming NBA campaign, general manager Pete Newell announced.

Barnett, 25, will be starting his fourth season in the professional ranks and third as a Rocket when the San Diego club opens its season, October 16, against the Phoenix Suns at Phoenix.

An All-American while at the University of Oregon, the 180-pound play-maker was the No. 1 draft choice of the Boston Celtics in 1966 and was a member of the Celtic team during the 1966-67 season, averaging 4.1 points in 48 games.

Plug Loopholes For Tax Reform Demands Van

WASHINGTON — Rep. Lionel Van Deerlin, D-San Diego, joined other Congressmen this week in urging President Nixon to spell out his views on tax reform.

"Nobody is certain how much additional money would flow into federal coffers if all loopholes were closed," the San Diego Congressman said in a separate statement. "But all the experts agree it would be a bundle — as much as $50 billion."

In a letter to the President, the Congressional group said a strong statement of support by Mr. Nixon for far-reaching reforms "would make it clear to the international financial community that our country is serious about fighting inflation."

In addition, they said, "it would let the average taxpayer know that the era of tax loopholes for the wealthy is drawing to a close, and that the tax burden in the future will be fairly shared by all."

Van Deerlin earlier had called for tying tax reform to the administration's request for a one-year extension of the surtax on personal and corporate income. After the House Ways and Means Committee decided to defer action on new reform proposals, the San Diego Congressmen voted against the surtax bill approved by the House June 30, 1969.

He said that to be truly meaningful, any reform package should plug such loopholes as the oil depletion allowance, capital gains, special treatment for tax options and accelerated depletion of speculative real estate.

Van Deerlin said just reducing the oil depletion allowance from 27½ percent to 15, and he allowance on other minerals from 23 percent to 15, would produce another $900 million a year in tax revenues.
